IsiXhosa, immediately translated into English, that I am an adult male with ID No. _____ date of birth _____, 51 years old, residing at _____

_____

Cell: _____ Full time final year law student at _____

do hereby state that:

During March 2007, I went to open a case of House breaking with intention to steal and Theft of my laptop, car radio, AMC ports, lots of clothing and a licenced fire-arm against unknown suspects, at Harare Police Station, under cas no _____ 2007.

I visited Harare Police Station on numerous occasions from March 2007 until 2008 to follow up on my case. A coloured Inspector unknown to me told me that he is busy with a lot of cases and showed me a pile of files saying he is too busy and that I must bring the suspect to the police station myself. I became very upset and stopped going there for any enquiries regarding further investigation of my case. The forensics had come from sea point and took finger prints from my car, house and everywhere but no arrests were made.

It is now 5 years and 6 months after opening the case in March 2007 and I have not received any feedback from the police officials in Harare Police Station. No one had even called or visited me regarding my case.

M.T.M. RM

I felt unsecured about the police, they are the people who are supposed to protect me.

I would like to express to the Commission that the police must be investigated and I would like to receive an outcome of the Commission's investigation on the police.
